Narrative:

Patriot Front group

Officer Narrative

On April 18, 2020 at approximately 1438 hours, a citizen complainant advised a white SUV and tan compact car occupied by approximately 8 white males hung a banner on the overpass bridge located at Leonardtown Road and Homeland Drive. I observed a large banner mounted to the fence which read "REVOLUTION IS TRADITION" along with a website, Patriotfront.us. The banner was approximately 40x5 in size and it was handmade with cloth, duct tape, water bottles, and spray paint. The banner was mounted to the fence with approximately 10 large zip ties.

I searched the website listed on the banner and discovered a legitimate website pushing extreme nationalist views. The website has videos of recent marches and banner displays, like the one mentioned above. The group appears to be operating in multiple states nationwide. The website has photographs of banners placed in multiple states, to include Maryland.

The banner was poorly made and a potential traffic hazard if it fell towards the roadway. The banner was removed and placed into property held at District III. The Southern Maryland Information Center (SMIC) was contacted and informed of the incident involving the banner.

The individuals who placed the banner are unknown at this time.

Disposition: Closed.

Title: (U) Harford County Sheriff's Office request for information
Re: [REDACTED] 06/03/2020

[REDACTED] explained that on 06/03/2020 at 1300 hrs there was a planned protest at the Sheriff's Office in Harford County by the BLM movement. One of the protest leaders had a BLM sign on her front yard and Patriot Front stickers were placed on the sign. It was unknown which individual maliciously destroyed the sign.

b6 -6
b7C -6

The Sheriff's Office became concerned that Patriot Front would use the BLM protest as an opportunity to spread their propaganda or commit violence. [REDACTED] requested the identities of known members of Patriot Front residing in Harford County.

Attached is the email sent to [REDACTED] and a list of Patriot Front members residing in Harford County.
